Crl. R.P. No 903 of 2000

---

Dated 3rd July, 2007

ORDER

Revision petitioner/accused stands convicted for the offence under section section 511 of 379 IPC and sentenced to undergo rigorous imprisonment for one year.

2. The prosecution case is that on 2-12-96 at about 1.35 p.m while PW-1, a girl student, who was going to house from school for taking lunch along with her younger sister, the accused attempted to snatch the gold necklace worn by her, from at the lane leading to her house. The accused was caught immediately after a chase by the passers-by.

3. The evidence adduced in the matter consisted of the testimony of PWs 1 to 6 and Exts.P1 and P2. The investigating officer was not examined.

4. Counsel for the revision petitioner has only sought for modification of the sentence and pleaded for leniency.

It is pointed out that the accused has undergone pretrial detention and that about 10 years is over since the date of commencement of the proceedings. It is also pointed out that the accused is having wife and 3 minor children who are depending solely on the income of the revision petitioner.

In the circumstances, I find that the sentences is liable to be modified. Hence, the sentences is modified to imprisonment already undergone and to pay fine of Rs.5000/- and in default to undergo simple imprisonment for 3 months.

The Crl.R.P.s disposed of accordingly.

K.R.UDAYABHANU,
JUDGE.
